

DR. MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR. HUMAN RIGHTS AWARD

The Martin Luther King, Jr. Human Rights Award will be presented April 4, 2005 during a midday program on The University of Memphis campus. The recipient must be a former student, or a current or former faculty or staff member of The University of Memphis. Former recipients are not eligible. The recipient will be selected based on the following criteria:

- A person who has consistently worked toward the furtherance of human relations through his/her work and/or extracurricular activities.
- A person who has consistently advocated nonviolent methods of social change.
- A person whose activities have consistently focused on the expansion of civil, social, and economic rights for those who have been deprived of the full scope of these rights.

Nomination Deadline February 4, 2008

Name _____

Job Title or Position _____

Address _____

Nominee is (check one): Current Faculty Current Staff/Administrator Former Student Former Faculty Former Staff/Administrator

On an attached sheet, please answer the following questions concerning the nominee, limiting your response to two pages typed:

1. How has this person demonstrated the ability to work with all members of The University of Memphis and the Memphis community without bias to promote interracial and intercultural understanding?
2. How has this person participated in individual and/or group activities which facilitate communication within the university community?
3. How has this person committed him/herself to the goals of racial justice and understanding to which Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. dedicated his life?
4. Please list the names and phone numbers of two people who will support this nomination.

Nominated by: _____

Address: _____

Phone: _____ Email: _____

Return all materials to:
African and African American Studies
107 Scates Hall
The University of Memphis
Memphis, TN 38152

Phone: 901.678.3550 FAX: 901.678.4206

We can not walk alone

